1. Introduction

1.1 School Information

Ballymagee is committed to providing a high quality education service. We believe that this is achieved and sustained through good relationships at all levels and in particular through open and honest communication with parents and others. We recognise, however, that despite the best efforts of teachers and non-teaching staff, there may be occasions when someone may feel that our service is not good enough and they may want to bring a concern or complaint to our attention. The following procedure is designed to ensure that concerns and complaints are dealt with in an appropriate and timely manner.

For the purposes of this policy, we consider a 'concern' to be something which is causing some worry, upset or dissatisfaction with how something is being handled by the school. A 'complaint' is a formal process and is initiated when a person feels their concern has not been listened to or dealt with appropriately, or if the matter is so serious it warrants moving straight to a complaint rather than giving the school an opportunity to respond in a more informal way.

1.2 Communication

Concerns Raised by Parents/Carers

A concern that relates to an individual teacher or a particular class should normally be discussed first with the teacher concerned. We ask you to be aware that it is difficult to deal properly with concerns during teaching and after-school planned activities and meetings. Therefore, it would be most helpful if you could send a brief note, in your child's school bag, to the teacher outlining your concern. The teacher will then contact you by telephone. It may be possible to resolve the issue raised by telephone but if not, the teacher will arrange to meet with you as soon as possible.

If you are not happy with the initial response, your concern should then be raised with the appropriate Head of Key Stage by ringing the school office and requesting a call back. The Head of Key Stage will speak to the class teacher for a summary of your concern before telephoning back.

Mrs Suzanne Hanna – Early Years (Nursery to P2)

Miss Victoria Bell – Key Stage 1 (P3 & P4)

Mr Gavin McCrea – Key Stage 2 (P5 – P7)

Concerns Raised by Others e.g. neighbours, visitors, delivery persons etc.

You should speak to someone in the school office to arrange a telephone conversation with the Principal, Mrs Karen Small. Following on, a meeting will be arranged if necessary.

If these initial attempts to resolve the concern have been unsuccessful you should refer to the School Complaints Procedure.

COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

Adopted by Board of Governors on: 20 October 2023

To be reviewed no later than October 2025

2. Scope of the Complaints Procedure

A complaint is described as an expression of dissatisfaction with our work.

2.1 Complaints with Established Procedures

Our school Complaints Procedure sets out how any expression of dissatisfaction relating to the school will be managed. By taking complaints seriously at the earliest possible stage, it is hoped that they can be resolved quickly and effectively.

Some examples of complaints dealt with:

- Not following school policy
- Communication delays / lack of communication
- Difficulties in staff / pupil relationships

This procedure should not be used for complaints with separate established procedures, however if your complaint relates to the school's failure to correctly administer any of these procedures, then you may complain by means of this procedure.

Some examples of statutory procedures and appeal mechanisms, which are not part of the school's complaints procedure, are listed below. The list is not exhaustive. The Principal/ Chair of Governors will advise on the appropriate procedure to use when a complaint is raised.

Exceptions
• Admissions / Expulsions / Exclusion of children from school • Statutory assessments of Special Educational Needs (SEN) • School Development Proposals • Child Protection / Safeguarding

2.2 Anonymous Complaints

The school will not normally investigate anonymous complaints, unless deemed by the Chairperson of the Board of Governors to be of a very serious nature. The decision of dealing with such complaints will be at the discretion of the Chairperson of the Board of Governors.

3. Aims of the Complaints Procedure

a. When dealing with Complaints

Our school aims to:

- Encourage resolution as quickly as possible;
- Provide timely responses;
- Keep complainants informed of progress;
- Ensure a full and fair investigation of your complaint;
- Have due regard for the rights and responsibilities of all parties involved;
- Respect confidentiality;
- Fully address complaints and provide an effective response;
- Take appropriate action to rectify the issue and prevent it happening again;
- Be responsive to learning from outcomes that will inform and improve practice within the school.
- Provide a process that is simple to understand and use;
- be impartial;
- be non-adversarial.

b. Availability of Procedure

A copy of this Procedure is available on our school's website or is available from the school on request.

4. Complaints Procedure – At a Glance

a. Time Limit

To enable complaints to be resolved, please contact the school as soon as possible. Unless there are exceptional circumstances, complaints will normally only be considered within 6 months of the date of the incident(s) about which you are complaining.

b. Stage One

When making a complaint, contact the School Principal who will arrange for the complaint to be investigated. If the complaint is about the Principal, proceed to Stage Two. The school requires complaints to be made in writing. Where this may present difficulties, please contact the school which will make reasonable arrangements to support you with this process.

When writing your complaint, please provide clear information and include the following:

- Your name and contact details
- What your complaint is about – please try to be specific
- What you have already done to try to resolve it and

- What you would like the school to do to resolve your complaint

The Principal will normally acknowledge the complaint as soon as possible but within 10 school working days. This will be a short response and you will be sent a copy of, (or a link to) the school's complaints procedure. A final response will normally be made within 20 school working days of receipt of the complaint. This response will be issued in writing and will indicate with reasons whether the complaint has been upheld, partially upheld or not upheld. If, for any reason, the consideration of a complaint takes longer to complete, you will be informed of revised time limits and kept updated on progress.

These timeframes may need to be reviewed if complaints are ongoing during school holiday periods.

If you remain unhappy with the outcome at Stage One, the complaint may be progressed to Stage Two which is overseen by the Board of Governors.

c. Stage Two

If your complaint is about the Principal or if the complaint is unresolved after Stage One, write to the Chairperson of the Board of Governors, Mr Darren Gamble. Where this may present difficulties, please contact the school which will make reasonable arrangements to support you with this process. The letter can be left at the school office and marked 'private and confidential'. The Chairperson will convene a committee to consider the complaint.

In the case of the complaint being about the principal, this committee will investigate the complaint.

Please provide clear information and include the following:

- Reason(s) why you disagree with the stage one findings
- Any aspect in which you think that the school's complaints procedure was not fully followed

The Chairperson of the committee will normally acknowledge the complaint as soon as possible but at least within 10 school working days. A final response will normally be made within 20 school working days from date of receipt of the second letter. The response will be issued by the Chairperson of the committee and will indicate, with reasons, whether the complaint has been upheld, partially upheld or not upheld.

If for any reason, the review of a complaint takes longer to complete, complainants will be informed of revised time limits and kept updated on progress.

These timeframes may need to be reviewed if complaints are ongoing during school holiday periods.

- Northern Ireland Public Services Ombudsman (NIPSO) www.nipso.org.uk

If following Stage Two you remain dissatisfied with the outcome of your complaint, you can refer the matter to the Office of the Northern Ireland Public Services Ombudsman (NIPSO).

The Ombudsman provides a free, independent and impartial service for handling complaints about schools in Northern Ireland. You have the right to complain to the Ombudsman if you feel that you have been treated unfairly or have received a poor service from a school and your complaint has not been resolved to your satisfaction.

A complaint should normally be referred to NIPSO within six months of the final response from the School. The school must advise in its concluding letter that the complaint may be referred to the NIPSO if you remain dissatisfied.

f. Unreasonable Complaints

The school is committed to dealing with all complaints fairly and impartially, and to providing a high quality service to those who complain. There will be occasions when, despite all stages of the complaints procedure having been completed and the complaint has been reviewed by the Ombudsman, the complainant remains dissatisfied. The school must balance the rights of an individual to make a complaint and have it fairly investigated with the rights of staff not to be subjected to unacceptable actions or behaviour.

Any decision to treat a complainant as unreasonable must take into account the need to ensure that the complaints procedure is being fairly applied and every attempt has been made to communicate and address concerns about behaviour/conduct with the complainant. In the event that such a decision has been taken, the complainant will be advised accordingly.
